Director Compensation and Board Assessment: Two Tools for Driving Board Excellence

Ryan P. Hourihan

MANAGING DIRECTOR

This year's NACD Blue Ribbon Commission Report aims to guide directors in building and maintaining a high performance board with culture at the foundation. But how does a board move beyond thought-provoking discussion to action?

In this webinar with Pearl Meyer and the NACD, our panel explores two of the paths outlined in the report that can have positive effect on governance and culture: The significant influence of director compensation philosophy and programs, and structuring and executing a fulsome, formal process for board and committee evaluations.

Download the presentation to understand how director compensation philosophy and program design choices impact board performance and culture and learn leading practices for structuring effective board assessments that drive continuous improvement.
